

Summer School 2013

Roma, 8-11 July

Fondazione Basso conference room - via della Dogana Vecchia, 5 - Roma

The European area of freedom security and justice (EAFSJ); scope, objectives, actors and dynamics.

Aim: to take stock of the current state of EAFSJ and of its foreseeable evolution within the next multiannual program 2015-2019 (to be adopted under Italian Presidency at the beginning of the next legislature).

Length: 4 one day modules

Subscriptions: on line on the Fondazione Basso internet site : www.fondazionebasso.it

Participation fees: Euro 480,00 - Euro 200,00 (FOR STUDENTS / RESEARCHERS) . (Bank Account of Fondazione Lelio e Lisli Basso - Banca Nazionale del Lavoro Ag. Senato Palazzo Madama: IBAN IT1810100503373000000002777 – SWIFT BNL II TRR).

For further information : tel. 0039.06.6879953 – basso@fondazionebasso.it

Languages: lessons will be mainly in Italian (some lessons will be in English and French), teaching material will be in Italian and/or English, French.

Programme

July 8th - A Constitutional and Institutional perspective – 09h00 am - 06h30 pm

Opening speeches:

Stefano Manservigi

After the Stockholm Programme : how to preserve the specificity of the European Area of Freedom security and Justice related policies by integrating them in the general EU governance and legal framework?

Valerio Onida

Freedom, Security and Justice related policies from a constitutional perspective and in relation with international and supranational dimensions.

Freedom Security and Justice as the core of the common constitutional european heritage. Promoting fundamental rights: the European Charter and its impact on EU policies.

Teacher: Ezio Perillo

Debate

Lunch

The EAFSJ after Lisbon. How the EAFSJ specificity has been preserved by progressively integrating it in the ordinary EU (communitarized) legal institutional framework.

The impact on the EU institutions and on the MS.

Teacher: Antonio Caiola

Evolution and transformation of the principle of Primacy of EU law.

Dialogue and mutual influence of European and national Constitutional Courts.

Teacher: Oreste Pollicino

Freedom Security and Justice as the core of the common constitutional european heritage .

Protecting fundamental rights: the impact of the accession of the EU to the ECHR.

Teacher: Giuseppe Cataldi

Debate

July 9th - Institutional dynamics and EU practices- 09h30 am - 06h30 pm

The EAFSJ as supranational constitutional area of democracy.

From National State to the European Union: what kind of relation between national and european legal orders ?

Teacher: Francesca Ferraro

The EAFSJ a cross road of European and national founding values (art. 2), as well as for fundamental and European citizenship rights.

Teacher: Nicoletta Parisi

The EAFSJ before Lisbon. The intergovernmental cooperation.

From "TREVI" via "Schengen" to Amsterdam. The first phase.

Teacher: Dino Rinoldi

Debate

Lunch

The principle of mutual recognition in the EAFSJ.

Teacher: Henry Labayle

The EAFSJ after Lisbon. The impact of Parliament on EAFSJ. The role of civil society and stakeholders.

Teacher: Emilio De Capitani

The EAFSJ after Lisbon .How EU policies are framed and implemented at national level. How cooperation, mutual recognition and harmonisation are implemented .

Teacher: Lorenzo Salazar

Debate

July 10th - An European space of freedom and rights - 09h30 am- 06h30 pm

The EAFSJ after Lisbon . Placing the individual at the heart of EU activities

Teacher: Emilio De Capitani

The EU evolving framework of Transparency, access to documents, principle of good administration, and of classified information

Teacher: Deirdre Curtin

Freedom of movement and integrated border management

Teacher: Luisa Marin

Debate

Lunch

Protection of Personal Data. The EU reform.

Teacher: Vanna Palumbo

The European common asylum system (and of EASO and EURODAC)

Teacher: Patricia Van de Peer

Debate

July 11 - An European space of security and justice - 09h30 am -06h30 pm

Judicial cooperation in civil matters; complement of the freedom of movement?

Teacher: Filomena Albano

Internal security strategy: crisis prevention and management.

Teacher: Sandro Menichelli

Judicial Cooperation in criminal matters

Teacher: Luca De Matteis

Debate

Lunch

The European Public Prosecutor perspective

Teacher: Elisabetta Cesqui

How to empower the EU citizens when EAFSJ are shaped and implemented ?

Intervention of Paul Nemitz, Antoine Cahen, Robert Bray and Tony Bunyan

Final Debate